

MBK

ALLIANCE

BOYS & YOUNG MEN OF COLOR
OPPORTUNITY SUMMIT

JUNE 22
MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

On Thursday, June 22nd, 2017, Memphis will welcome Pathways to Success: Boys and Young Men of Color Opportunity Summit to the Cook Convention Center.

The Summit will provide individuals ages 16 – 29 opportunities to interview with employers, connect to community resources, and participate in career preparation and leadership training.

VOLUNTEER PARTNERS

Volunteer Partners are employers that join us in supporting BYMOC on the day of the Opportunity Summit. Your acts of service help ensure young adults enter the workforce career-ready and positioned for long-term success.

Special thanks to our partners:

GREATER MEMPHIS CHAMBER

Note: the below information is likely most relevant for your Human Resources or Corporate Citizenship/ CSR Personnel.

BECOME A SUMMIT VOLUNTEER PARTNER

Complete an Employer Volunteer Form (<http://mbkamemphis.com>), which takes less than 5 minutes. For more information or to discuss additional next steps, contact summit@mbkalliance.org.

WHY VOLUNTEER AT THE CAREER SUMMIT?

Volunteer opportunities include:

- + Conducting mock interviews
- + Helping attendees create LinkedIn profiles
- + Assisting with resume development

ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Recruit: Fulfill talent needs by interviewing pre-trained, pre-screened talent and hiring qualified candidates on the spot. Contact summit@mbkalliance.org.

Not interested in hiring but still interested in exposing the young people of Memphis to your brand? Contact summit@mbkalliance.org about opportunities to set up an exploration table.